

One week as a “Finnish” Diplomat in New York? Join DGVN NRW e.V. for NMUN New York 2019!

Interested in International Relations, the UN and Model UNs?

Want to visit the UN Headquarters and meet with thousands of students from all over the world? If so, the NRW-branch of the German United Nations Association (DGVN NRW e.V.) has a very interesting offer: Become a “Finnish UN-Diplomat in New York” March 21–29, 2019!

We will take a group of students to the National Model UN (NMUN) in New York (www.nmun.org). There, our group will represent Finland in 13 committees at the largest student Model UN at and with the UN.

Some financial support (up to ca. €250,-) is available upon request for residents of North Rhine-Westphalia. For an overview of costs and dates please consult <http://www.nmun.org/>.

You will be prepared through a simulation beforehand (GerMUN 2019 in Berlin) as well as meetings in and around the UN-city of Bonn by a long-time NMUN Faculty Adviser. He will also help you with getting to know the rules, how to write a position paper, structure and workings of the UN, rhetorical skills, the role of your country at the UN, etc. Parts of the preparation will take place online and all will be on week-ends. In New York substantive meetings will also be arranged.

To apply: CV and letter of motivation (one page) in English until November 5th 2019 to t.weiler@dgvn-nrw.de.
